Submitted to His Highness.

This memorial is addressed to His Highness and gives the tale of a sad case.

The question of the Petitioner's pension was decided so long ago as 1891 but he has continued petitioning ever since.

H

The brief history of the case may be briefly stated as follows:-

He began his service very early in life and from 1-9-1869 to 31-8-79 was drawing 25 Rs a month as a Munshi in one of the Hyderabad Courts in the Mysore Districts and in the later years of that period was acting as Head Munshi of that Office and drawing 32 Rs. During this period he served under me personally for some years and my opinion was that he was one of the efficient officials of the Office. His misfortune seems to have begun when the Office itself was abolished with the result personally when of a transfer to an office on a reduced pay of twenty rupees - He seems to have failed to secure the satisfaction of his superiors and by one to be thrown about from one office to another. From a Register office he was sent to a Talug Cutcherie & subsequently sent away from there as a Shekdar - He seems to have deteriorated and on account of his impaired efficiency or continued inefficiency he was retired - after a further service of about 11 years rupees - On average calculated at a pension of ten and on account of his inefficiency half a rupee was deducted and a pension of 9 1/2 was awarded - The nature of his service and the grounds of retirement are described in Dy Comrs letter No 235/5 of 6th January 91. marked P. The disposal of his case was strictly in accordance with rules and it was also an old case having little or no justification for being reopened -

The man has become old and the mental worry seems have impaired his intellect also.
He has met with another misfortune also - He educated his son very well and the latter passed the F. A. Exam^n of the Madras Univers^y But his brain was affected and he is now a lisping and stupid idiot The father & son may be seen to be walking about in the streets of Mysore without any other purpose than that of repeating his hard fate and the loss of his offt & pension - I have been moving him in this conduct for the last two or three yrs and was unable to do Now that this memorial has been received I do have thought it proper to bring his sad case to the merciful consideration of His Highness - He has undoubtedly exercised any pity and compassion and a right of being entitled to his information doubt more His Highness's mercy will no towards him - His treatment need not be drawn into a precedent - and His Highness will, I feel assured, be doing a deserving and heavenly act of mercy if he will be pleased to sanction the pension being raised from 9½ to 12½ Rupees which is but one half of the substantive pay which they knew he was drawing as an intelligent and efficient official for the long period of ten years.
